

MICHELLE NG

Trainer

PROFILE

Michelle is an Accredited HRDC Trainer with over two decades of experience helping organizations develop confident, self-aware, and emotionally intelligent leaders. She designs and delivers transformative in-person training programs that strengthen intra-personal communication, emotional regulation, and decision-making clarity — the foundation of effective leadership.

As an Accredited Enneagram Coach and NLP Master Practitioner, Michelle brings depth and structure to every session by integrating behavioral and psychological frameworks into practical, results-driven learning. Her programs guide participants to understand their internal drivers, manage stress responses, and cultivate leadership from the inside out.

Organizations engage Michelle to equip managers and emerging leaders with tools to:

- Strengthen self-awareness and emotional agility
- Build resilience and focus under pressure
- Communicate with clarity and empathy
- Foster accountability and self-leadership in teams

Michelle has worked with professionals across property, retail, trading, engineering, manufacturing, gaming development and service industries, delivering high-impact workshops that promote reflection, responsibility, and real behavioral change.

Recognized for her clear facilitation, engaging delivery, and ability to create lasting transformation, Michelle helps leaders lead with authenticity, purpose, and confidence — turning self-understanding into organizational strength.
