

TRAINER PROFILE

HEZRY YASIN

Introduction >

Hi there!

My name is Muhammad Hezry, a graduate of the International Islamic University of Malaysia with a Bachelor of Science in Architecture. With over a decade of experience in Human Development, I specialize in designing and delivering impactful training programs that enhance performance, strengthen leadership capabilities, and support organizational transformation. I bring a strategic approach to Learning and Development that integrates both soft and hard skills, ensuring relevance and measurable outcomes.

Throughout my career, I have led comprehensive training needs analysis (TNA) and competency gap assessments, enabling me to design structured learning pathways that align with business objectives. I have successfully engaged with diverse stakeholders from senior leaders to front-line teams, to ensure training initiatives drive real impact. By leveraging experiential learning, coaching, and innovative content design, I have fostered a culture of continuous improvement and equipped employees with the skills to thrive in dynamic work environments.

I am confident that my proven expertise in stakeholder engagement, organizational transformation, and talent development will add significant value to your organization. I look forward to the opportunity to contribute my experience and collaborate on building learning initiatives that not only elevate individual growth but also accelerate long-term organizational success.
